

National Conference of Women's Bar
Associations

Maximizing Your Potential

Flexible Schedules: How To Make Them Work For You

Web Seminar

Thursday, December 11, 2008 • 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. CST

RSVP Contact: Jody Stanek at jstanek@foley.com

Now so more than ever, it is essential that law firms develop successful and viable flexible hours policies to retain talented attorneys during times in their lives when greater flexibility is required. Our speakers will address key research findings on the importance of flex schedules, best practices for attorneys and their firms, what women's bar associations can do to promote successful flex schedule opportunities, and how to approach these issues in the midst of a difficult economy.

Panelists:

Judith Finer Freedman

Founder, The Balanced Worker Project

Amy B. Manning

Partner, McGuireWoods LLP
Partner in Charge for the Call to Action Commitment on Women

Erica Templeton Spencer

Senior Counsel, Foley & Lardner
Chairperson of the
Flexible Schedule Affinity Group

Moderator:

E. Lynn Grayson

Partner, Jenner & Block LLP
Chair of the Jenner & Block Women's Forum and NCWBA Board Member